Basic Trustee Functions

1. Policy-making: to establish and revise policies, through careful study and thoughtful discussion, that will determine the proper course of action.
2. Finance: to advise and approve budgets, seeing that the Library has the necessary funds available for proper running of the Library. To promote referendums and bond levies if necessary, stimulating gifts and endowments.
3. Community Relations: to see that the community understands the objectives and goals of the Library, to promote good public relations whenever possible.
